

Safeguarding Equality Policy

The aim of this policy is to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect and that our club is equally accessible to all.

On-Stage Now Performing Arts Academy is responsible for setting standards and values to apply throughout its activities. Performing Arts belong to and should be enjoyed by anyone who wants to participate in it.

On-Stage Now in all its activities will not discriminate or in any way, treat anyone less favourably on grounds of age, gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status, race, nationality, ethnic origin, colour, religion or belief, ability or disability. The academy will ensure it treats people fairly and with respect and that it will provide access and opportunities for all members of the community to take part in and enjoy its activities.

On-Stage Now will not tolerate harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation of an individual, which for the purposes of this policy and the actions and sanction applicable is regarded as discrimination.

This includes sexual or racially based harassment or other discriminatory behaviour, whether physical or verbal. The academy will work to ensure that such behaviour is met with appropriate action in whatever context it occurs.

On-Stage Now is committed to taking positive action where inequalities exist and to the development of a programme of ongoing training and awareness raising events and activities in order to promote the eradication of discrimination and promote equality in performing arts.

On-Stage Now is committed to a policy of equal treatment of all participants and staff and requires all participants and staff to abide and adhere to these policies and the requirements of the Equality Act 2010.

On-Stage Now commits itself to the immediate investigation of any claims when brought to its attention, of discrimination on the above grounds and where such is found to be the case, a requirement that the practice stop and sanctions are imposed as appropriate.

This policy is fully supported by the staff who are responsible for the implementation of this policy.

OUR COMMITMENT is to confront and eliminate discrimination whether by reason of age, gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status, race, nationality, ethnic origin, colour, religion or belief, ability or disability and to encourage equal opportunities.
